

The Indiana Telephone Privacy Act has worked very well in returning peace and privacy to my home. I would be very disappointed to see anything done to weaken the provisions of this Act.